

November 2011

Leading lights...

Dr Gary Wilson Managing Partner of Harrison Goddard Foote patent and trade mark attorneys in Scotland has been shortlisted by Intellectual Property Magazine as IP Lawyer of the Year 2011. This comes on the back of a hugely successful year for the firm in Scotland having earlier in the year won the Scottish IP Firm of Year 2011 awarded by Managing Intellectual Property Magazine. The firm has also this year opened a new office in Aberdeen along with the recruitment of Craig Watson, Dr Fiona Edwards and Dr Douglas Drysdale.

Dr Gary Wilson commented "I am delighted to have been shortlisted by Intellectual Property Magazine and have found myself in some prestigious company. It is always nice to receive recognition from your peer group especially after all the hard work that has gone into expanding the HGF organisation into Scotland."

Paul Sanderson, CEO commented "Gary is an exceptional attorney with a strong reputation across Scotland for his professional talent and advocacy skills. We are delighted that he has been shortlisted and wish him success at the awards in November."

Dr Jennifer Uno has also received a nomination for Young IP Lawyer of the Year 2011. Jennifer is a patent attorney based in the firm's York office who has showed great business acumen over the last 12 months along with exceptional client relationship management and technical ability.

The awards ceremony will take place at the Connaught Rooms, London on November 16th. For further details of the awards and others shortlisted please follow the link below:
