Information about our use of cookies

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use Functionality cookies to recognize you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purpose for which we use them in the table below:

Cookie Name	Purpose	Duration	More information
_ga	Functionality cookies	2 years	Used to distinguish users
_gat	Functionality cookies	1 minute	Used to throttle request rate
_gid	Functionality cookies	24 hours	Used to distinguish users
vuid	Analytics	2 years	This domain of this cookie is owned by Vimeo. This cookie is used by vimeo to collect tracking information. It sets a unique ID to embed videos to the website.
player	Functional	1 year	This cookie is used by Vimeo. This cookie is used to save the user's preferences when playing embedded videos from Vimeo.
aka_debug	Functional		This cookie is set by the provider Vimeo. This cookie is essential for the website to play video functionality. The cookie collects statistical information like how many times the video is displayed and what settings are used for playback.
wp-wpml_current_language	Other	1 day	This cookie is owned by HGF. This cookie is used by HGF in order to identify the current language of the website.

Please note that third parties (including, for example, advertising networks and providers of external services like web traffic analysis services) may also use cookies, over which we have no control. These cookies are likely to be analytical/performance cookies.

Analytical/performance cookies allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

You block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all parts of our site.
