

HGF Privacy Policy – April 2026

Introduction

This Policy applies to HGF Business Services Limited (UK), HGF Limited (UK), HGF Law LLP (UK), HGF BV (Holland), HGF GmbH (Switzerland), HGF Europe LLP (Germany, Austria and UK), HGF IP Limited (Ireland) and HGF SAS (France) together referred to as HGF within this Policy.

This Policy sets out how we handle the personal data of data subjects whose personal data comes into our possession through our core activities of providing professional and legal services relating to intellectual property matters and through data subjects' use of our website (our Services).

This Policy details:

- The types of personal data that we may collect or be provided with;
- What we do with that personal data;
- Our lawful basis for processing such personal data; and
- Your rights in relation to your personal data held by us.

Please read the following carefully to understand our practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

If we hold personal data about you in relation to our Services, HGF Limited of 4th Floor, 1 City Square, Leeds, LS1 2ES is the controller and responsible for your personal data. Our business is made up of different legal entities, as set out above. This privacy Policy is issued on behalf of the HGF Group so when we mention HGF we are referring to each company in the group responsible for processing your data.

We have a Data Protection Officer (DPO) who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this privacy Policy. If you have any questions about this privacy Policy or around how we handle your personal data, including any requests to exercise your rights, please contact the DPO via email at dataprotection@hgf.com or by writing to us at the address provided above.

Please note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

Marketing

You can withdraw your consent to marketing at any time by contacting us at marketing@hgf.com, or where relevant, by following the unsubscribe link in any marketing communication you receive from us.

Where you unsubscribe from our marketing messages we will not market to you but will retain a record that we are not to send such correspondence to you.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us at marketing@hgf.com

Cookies

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of our website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please see here.

Disclosures of your personal data

We may have to share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table above.

Internal Third Parties

Other companies in the HGF Group acting as joint controllers or processors and who are based within the United Kingdom or the EEA.

External Third Parties

- Intellectual Property Offices.
- The Courts.
- Third party IP service providers (i.e. foreign attorney associates, renewal and patent validation services).
- Other parties connected with a deal or litigation (and their professional advisors).
- Other providers of professional services/advisers (for example where there is a case transfer).
- Professional advisers acting as processors or joint, or independent controllers including lawyers, chambers, barristers, bankers, auditors and insurers who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services.
- Credit reference agencies.
- Professional Indemnity insurer.
- Service providers acting as processors who provide IT and system administration services.
- HM Revenue & Customs, regulators and other authorities.
- Printers.
- Creative agencies (Designer & digital).
- Directories.
- Conference organisers and venues.
- Professional cataloguing bodies, legal directories and other feedback agencies.

We may also share your personal data with third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy Policy.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

International transfers

We engage with some external third parties who are based outside the UK and European Economic Area (EEA) so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of data outside the EEA.

Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the UK/EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data.
- Where we use certain service providers, we may use approved clauses within our contracts which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe or the UK.
- HGF will utilise the EU-US Data Privacy Framework
- HGF will utilise the UK/US Data Bridge
- HGF will follow the ICO and other relevant supervisory authority guidance for all international personal data transfer outside of the UK/EEA

Please Contact us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the UK/EEA.

Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Data retention

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

Your legal right

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. You have the right to:

Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a "data subject access request").

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you.

Request erasure of your personal data.

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms.

Request restriction of processing of your personal data.

Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party.

Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us.

You also have the right to make a complaint with us or the Information Commissioner's Office. The ICO is the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues, and details on how to do so can be found here. If you are based in the EU, you can find your relevant supervisory authority here.

We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO or your relevant supervisory authority, so please contact us in the first instance by using the contact details provided at the top of this Policy.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded or excessive, or you request further copies of your information following a request. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request where it is manifestly unfounded or excessive.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated

Changes to our privacy policy

Any changes we may make to our privacy policy in the future will be posted on this page and, where appropriate, notified to you by e-mail.
